Art Karo Na!

Art Competition by the Children's Fine Art Gallery in collaboration with Teach For India, Hyderabad

TOPIC

"How will I spend the day today?"

PURPOSE

In this fast paced world we are not used to sitting locked down in our homes for so many days at a stretch! But, for our safety and for the safety of others, staying home is staying safe. So let us use art to express and share how we are spending our day, everyday! Are you reading a book, cooking a special dish, taking care of your little siblings? What did you do today?

DETAILS

1. Age group: 5-18 years. Winners will be chosen along 3 categories:
    - 5-9years
    - 10-12 years
    - 13-18 years
2. Time of submission: Before 4pm every day
3. Announcement of winners: 8pm the next day after submission
4. Medium: Your choice
5. Size: Your choice
6. Certificates: Digital certificates will be sent across to the registered email ID. At the end of the competition series, the Participation Certificates will be issued digitally as well.

THINGS TO KEEP IN MIND

1. Label your artwork: Student name, class, school name must be written
2. Art must be ORIGINAL and AUTHENTIC. Do NOT copy from the internet or elsewhere
3. Photo quality: Make sure the image of your art is clear. The art, details should not be blurred.
4. Title: Give a title / heading to you artwork too!

PROCESS

Step 1: Register the student in this link http://bit.ly/artkaronaa

NOTE: The email ID being used for registration can be the student's. In case the student does not have, the parent/ teacher/ guardian can add theirs.

Step 2: Upload student's artwork in this google drive link http://bit.ly/artuploadkarona based on the category they belong to according to the age group

JUDGES

We will have one judge per day. The judges are as follows:

1. Tapan Dash
2. Girish Kulkarni
3. Avadesh Yadav
4. Basant Bhargav
5. Kappari Kishan
6. Palakshi Das

Super excited to share that as we progress with the contest, we will be inviting more and more senior artists from across the nation to judge the artworks!